(None marked)

1 do you turn your phone off?

2 A No.

3 Q All right. So you just leave it on. Do you turn the volume 4 off?

5 A It's more or less on vibrate, unless I'm expecting a certain 6 call or something, but during the school day my family knows 7 that if you want to get ahold of me you have to call the 8 classroom number just with how busy I am and how I teach.

9 Q Did you -- and I apologize if I asked you this. So you told 10 me that you had talked to your husband about this and he said
11 it was a scam. Did you ever have another conversation with 12 him about this whole situation of why you were getting these 13 letters from Dyck O'Neal?

14 A I had talked to him at a robotics competition. He still went 15 with "It's a scam, Karen." And I said, "Then why is it on my 16 credit report?" Then he refused to no longer talk to me
17 about it.

18 Q Now, at the time when you had -- you still had the landline
19 and the cell phone, when you provided a contact number, 20 whether it be for school or anything, or let's say you were 21 going to sign up for something, I don't know, on the Internet
22 or buy something on the Internet or something like that,
23 would you provide the landline number or your cell phone
24 number?

25 A My cell phone, because I knew we would eventually get rid of
