PLAINTIFF’S ORIGINAL COMPLAINT

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff BRANDON CALLIER (“Plaintiff”) is a natural person, resident of the Western District of Texas, and was present in Texas for all calls, in this case in El Paso County, Texas.

2. Defendant HOLISTIC CHOICE LABS LLC (“Defendant”) is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of Georgia and can be served via its registered agent, Kris Brown, 424 Columbia Industrial Blvd, #6, Evans, GA 30809.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Count I under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, because the claims arise under the federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227. See Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, 565 U.S. 368, 386-87 (2012) (holding that federal courts have federal question jurisdiction over private actions brought under the TCPA).

4. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s Texas state claims under 28 U.S.C § 1367.

5. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants purposefully availed themselves of the State of Texas and of this District, and there is a sufficient relationship between Defendant’s purposeful contacts with Texas and the litigation.

- a. Defendant targets Texas when marketing its products and regularly conducts business in this District, including by telephone solicitation.
 - b. The purposeful text messages to Texas injured Plaintiff in Texas, creating a causal link between Defendant, the forum, and the litigation that exceeds the non-causal affiliation that is sufficient to support the specific personal jurisdiction. See Ford Motor Co. v Mont. Eight Jud. Dist. Ct., 141 S. Ct. 1017 (2021).
6. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1)-(2) because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims—the calls and sale of goods and services directed at Texas residents, including the Plaintiff—occurred in this District and because the Plaintiff resides in this District. Residing in the Western District of Texas, when he received a substantial, if not every single, text message from Defendant, which is the subject matter of this lawsuit.

THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF 1991, 47 U.S.C. § 227

7. In 1991, Congress enacted the TCPA to restrict the use of sophisticated telemarketing equipment that could target millions of consumers en masse. Congress found that these calls were not only a nuisance and an invasion of privacy to consumers specifically but were also a threat to interstate commerce generally. See S. Rep. No. 102-178, at 2-3 (1991), as reprinted in 1991 U.S.C.C.A.N. 1968, 1969-71.

8. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice ... to any telephone number assigned to a ... cellular telephone service.” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

9. The TCPA makes it unlawful “to initiate any telephone call to any residential telephone line using an artificial or prerecorded voice to deliver a message without the prior express consent of the called party, unless the call is initiated for emergency purposes. 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(B).

10. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(b). 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

11. Separately, the TCPA bans making telemarketing calls without a do-not-call policy available upon demand. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(1).

12. The TCPA provides a private cause of action to persons who receive calls in violation of § 227(c) or a regulation promulgated thereunder. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

13. The FCC recognizes that “wireless customers are charged for incoming calls whether they pay in advance or after the minutes are used.” In re Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014, 14115 ¶ 165 (2003).

14. The FCC requires “prior express consent” for all autodialed or prerecorded telemarketing robocalls to wireless numbers and residential lines. In particular:[A] consumer’s written consent to receive telemarketing robocalls must be signed and be sufficient to show that the consumer: (1) received clear and conspicuous disclosure of the consequences of providing the requested consent, i.e., that the consumer will receive future calls that deliver prerecorded messages by or on behalf of a specific seller; and (2) having received this information, agrees unambiguously to receive such calls at a telephone number the consumer designates. In addition, the written agreement must be obtained without requiring, directly or indirectly, that the agreement be executed as a condition of purchasing any good or service.

15. In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27 FCC Rcd. 1830, 1844 ¶ 33 (2012) (footnote and internal quotation marks omitted). FCC regulations “generally establish that the party on whose behalf a solicitation is made bears ultimate responsibility for any violations.” In the Matter of Rules and Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 10 FCC Rcd. 12391, 12397 ¶ 13 (1995).

16. The FCC confirmed this principle in 2013, when it explained that “a seller ... may be held vicariously liable under federal common law principles of agency for violations of either section 227(b) or section 227(c) that are committed by third-party telemarketers.” In the Matter of the Joint Petition Filed by Dish Network, LLC, 28 FCC Rcd. 6574, 6574 ¶ 1 (2013).

17. Under the TCPA, a text message is a call. Satterfield v. Simon & Schuster, Inc., 569 F.3d 946, 951 – 52 (9th Cir. 2009).

18. A corporate officer involved in the telemarketing at issue may be personally liable under the TCPA. E.g., Jackson Five Star Catering, Inc. v. Beason, Case No. 10-10010, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159985, at *10 (E.D. Mich. Nov. 8, 2013) (“[M]any courts have held that corporate actors can be individually liable for violating the TCPA where they had direct, personal participation in or personally authorized the conduct found to have violated the statute.” (internal quotation marks omitted)); Maryland v. Universal Elections, 787 F. Supp. 2d 408, 415 – 16 (D. Md. 2011) (“If an individual acting on behalf of a corporation could avoid individual liability, the TCPA would lose much of its force.”).

25. Federal common law principles of agency apply to TBCC violations...and the conduct of the telemarketer who makes the calls can be imputed to the seller if the telemarketer is an agent of the seller. Guadian v. Progressive Debt Relief, LLC, No. EP-23-cv-235, 2023 WL 7393129, at *4 (W.D. Tex. Nov. 8, 2023); see also Callier v. Tip Top Cap. Inc., No. EP-23-cv-437, 2024 WL 1637535, at *3 (W.D. Tex. Apr. 16, 2024) (holding that a seller violates § 302.101 when a telemarketer makes calls on behalf of a seller who does not hold a registration certificate); Forteza v. Pelican Inv. Holdings Grp., LLC, No. 23-cv-401, 2023 WL 9199001, at *6 (E.D. Tex. Dec. 27, 2023) (same); Salaiz v. Beyond Fin., LLC, No. EP-23-cv-6, 2023 WL 6053742, at *5 (W.D. Tex. Sept. 18, 2023) (refusing to dismiss a § 302.101 claim because “Plaintiff has plausibly alleged that Defendant effected or attempted to effect the thirteen calls Plaintiff received by hiring telemarketers to make those calls.”).

A violation of Chapter 302 “is a false, misleading, or deceptive act or practice under Subchapter E, Chapter 17” and is enforceable as such: “A public or private right or remedy prescribed by Subchapter E, Chapter 17, may be used to enforce [Chapter 302.” Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 302.303.

28. The use or employment by any person of a false, misleading, or deceptive act or practice” causes “economic damages or damages for mental anguish.” Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 17.50.
